

As the apocalypse marches on, familiar horrors give way to those of a supernatural nature.

Face off against life draining vampires, ghouls, and werewolves in a classic monster set or try to stop a bunch of cultists from summoning Cthulhu or other unspeakable Lovecraftian horrors. Each apocalypse brings with it new gameplay mechanisms such as the Insanity deck of phobias or the new night/day event deck.

This game includes five survivor characters: Priest, Army Ranger, Scientist, Adventurer, and Ronin. Each character comes with their own unique survivor deck of abilities and equipment cards.

Gothic Horrors can be played as a stand-alone 1-4 player game, or combined with the contents of any other Maximum Apocalypse games or expansions to support up to 6 players. Survivors from Maximum Apocalypse, Kaiju Rising, Wasted Wilds, and Jurassic Perils are all fully playable in this game. Plus any of the new survivors from Gothic Horrors can be played in the other Maximum Apocalypse games!

5 New Survivor Classes!

Picking a unique survivor class within the group, players must plan their strategy and work together while leaning on their survivor's strengths in order to defeat monsters and avoid starvation.

6 New Monster Decks!

If you are overwhelmed by monsters or die of starvation, the your team loses. Take shelter in abandoned hospitals or scavenge supplies to survive.

Over a dozen missions to play through!

The game map is randomly generated and different every time that you play, with increasing difficulty as you battle your way through different levels.

... the End is Nigh, Will You Survive?
