

Ye Gods! The war between pantheons expands...

In Twilight of the Gods, you and your friends will each assume the role of a deity from myth and legend, and battle to the death to see who is the strongest god, using human armies, mystical beasts, and heroes of renown from both past and future. Choose a Strategy, Aggression, Negotiation, Mysticism, or Sanctuary to influence your battle. Gather your friends, assemble your acolytes, and prove your might!

This is an expansion 3-pack. It requires Twilight of the Gods: Age of Revelation to play.

The war rages on...

Twilight of the Gods Season of Prophecy Pack

In Season of Prophecy, the forces of Sanctuary emerge from behind their walls to take the fight to their enemies. Led by the Norse goddess Freya, these new cards accelerate Sanctuary's early game options and allow for a more proactive and aggressive play style. Not everything is good news for the defenders, however, as the other three factions are mustering potent new additions to their arsenals as well.

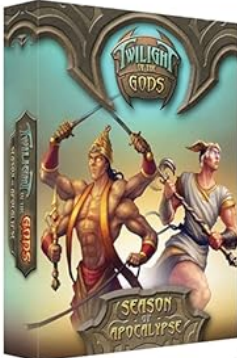

Contains 50 cards (1 deity, 15 new cards of multiple copies, and 4 cards previously seen in the core set).

Twilight of the Gods Season of Epiphany Pack

In Season of Epiphany, the adherents of Mysticism tap deeply into primal sources, bringing a bevy of new destructive effects to bear on all who would oppose them. Bolstered by such powerful cards as Aether Implosion, and the emergence of Yggdrasil, the World Tree, Mysticism followers gather behind Horus to dominate the battlefield. It remains to be seen if the new powers gathered by the other factions can withstand the oncoming storm...

Contains 50 cards (1 deity, 17 new cards of multiple copies, and 4 cards previously seen in the core set).

Will this be the final battle of the gods? Only time will tell...
